Take Me As I Am

If you are willing to roll your sleeves up and put in a bit of work to value add then this property is the perfect fit for you.

A 3 bedroom home, 1979 built and in original condition, currently occupies the site, which with extensive renovation could be made into a home.

This flat level block is perfect for buyers looking to build their dream home and take advantage of the government building grants.

This property will be sold and is being sold "As is".

Contact Hamersley's Ben Barber to book a time in to view this opportunity that will not last long
